Dear Sir/Madam

ASIC has received notification that you have been authorised as an adviser and/or authorised representative of RICH SMART FINANCE PTY LTD (licensee).

You have been allocated the following representative number: 001307402.

We have also advised RICH SMART FINANCE PTY LTD (licensee) that you have been allocated this number.

The representative number is a unique identifier that will help to ensure that all information about you maintained by ASIC, is correct.

If you already had a representative number, you should advise the licensee as the information on the Financial Advisers Register and/or Authorised Representative Register may need to be corrected.

In the future, if you are authorised on behalf of any other licensee or corporate authorised representative, you need to provide your representative number when you are being appointed.

If any of your details change in the future (e.g. principal place of business, qualifications, professional association membership information etc.), please tell your licensee. They will need update your information with ASIC.

For further information, visit www.asic.gov.au/far

Yours sincerely
